Kia ora,

This is a follow up email to remind people to vote in the poll circulated last week. Thank you to everyone that has already indicated your preference.

Poll update

A total of 221 people voted so far; 70 of whom voted for option A, controlling 2,614 votes; 28 people voted for option B, controlling 370 votes; and 123 people voted for option C, controlling 3,571 votes. The total number of shareholders is 629, and the total number of votes possible is 19,146.

In summary, so far:

13.65% votes were cast for OPTION 1: accept the offer that returns funds to shareholders as soon as possible.

1.93% votes were cast for OPTION 2: accept the offer that provides a better return but takes significantly longer.

18.65% votes were cast for OPTION 3: wait for a better offer.

65.76% remaining votes to be cast.

If you have not voted, please indicate your preference by completing this poll by 8 May at 5pm. I understand that a few people have had trouble accessing the poll. If for whatever reason you cannot enter the google form, please send me an email with your preference.

Questions and Answers

A few shareholders have asked if they can buy, sell or gift shares. We answered this in a previous shareholder email, please refer here for details.

Please refer to the Q&A at the bottom of this document for a full summary of all questions received and the answers provided. As always, please do not hesitate to reach out to me with any other questions.

Kindly,
